[Written for the Democrat.]

A Sonnet.

The wild rose salutes the verbena,
The dove dips in love to the sea;
But what can I do, sweet Lorena,
To prove my affection for thee?
Shallow seas mutter and mutter,
They mourn and they weep at their will;
Some thoughts we never can utter,
The deep soul must ever be still.

How still is the dreadful deep ocean,
Silence is sweeter than song:
The spheres have a solemn deep motion,
In silence God moves them along.
So I will keep down my emotion,
Heart strings may break or be strong;
The depth of a pure devotion
Can never be sounded in song.

San Jose, Cal., Sept. 1875. HOOD ALSTON.

After An Earthquake.

The day after this terrible scene people flocked in all all sides, armed with implements for digging and mules to carry the plunder away. Merchants who attempted to find and recover their safes had to proceed revolver in hand. The pillage of the ruins went on for five days, during which time those bandits sent away some fifty mule-loads of the goods of the unfortunates that lay buried under the ruins of what had been the fine city of Cucuta in the Republic of Colombia. The streets and lanes among the ruins were covered with all kinds of goods and merchandise. In one place boxes of wine had been opened, the contents drunk and the bottles scattered around; in other places, chandeliers, silk trimmings, furs and furniture. In another were to be seen tins of sardines, salmon, oysters, etc., all in confusion, and all more or less covered with mud. In the midst of all this there were quite a people of this unfortunate city setting off Chinese crackers, drinking wine, surrounded by dead bodies, and shouting out, "Now the rich are poor and the poor rich." All this was accompanied with the clamors of the living, the groans of the wounded and the cries of those buried alive, who begged to be helped out from under the ruins of falling houses. Some pious old woman would come into view with her lap full of stolen articles, murmuring, "What a terrible misfortune," and then hastening home to count the beads of her rosary and take an inventory of the valuables in her possession. The whole scene smelt of the infernal regions, and seemed a foretaste of the day of judgment. And so passed several days; those who could, left, and those who could not did the best that was possible under the circumstances. The very aid sent to the unfortunate the robbers managed to share, and little of it fell to the lot of the really deserving. The Chief of the National force stationed there abandoned his post. The Colombian guard, as it was called, mutinied, and after robbing what it could, dissolved and deserted. Even the Alcalde took to flight and left the robbers masters of the lives and goods of their unfortunate fellow citizens. In fine, Cucuta is now only a name for a horrible heap of ruins, with its dead inhabitants putrifying under them.—Bogota Tradicionista.

A DOUBLE CHILD.—This strange freak is in the shape of a double child, or, more strictly speaking, two children joined together. The curiosity is the offspring of colored parents, Crittenden and Sarah Jones of Beech Island, S. C. One of the children is a perfectly developed female, large for her age, and with every appearance of health. The other, who is a male, is but imperfectly developed, has only the rudiments of limbs, does not eat, depending for sustenance upon its sister. These two beings are joined together by a wide band, in the center of which one of the lungs of these strange creatures seems to be located. Touch the male and the female will shrink; pinch it and she will cry. Reverse the operation, and still it is the female who manifests sensibility. The head of the female is small and misshapen, the ears presenting more the appearance of those of an animal than a human being. The pulsation of the heart and the act of respiration can be plainly perceived in the ligament joining the bodies. This ligament, if such it can be called, is joined to the girl at the end of the breast-bone and to the male lower down. It is broad and thick, covered with skin like the rest of the body. Whether there are two distinctive sets of vital organs, or whether both are dependent upon one, has not yet been determined. The latter opinion seems to prevail, however. It is apparent, at any rate, that the male receives nourishment through its companion. A well-known physician of this city examined the twins yesterday and pronounced them to be the most wonderful natural phenomenon of the kind in the world. The mother and father of the children are strong and healthy. Twins were never born to them before. The twins are about eight weeks old. Messrs. Hunkerson & Weathersby, of South Carolina, have them in charge, and intend to take them from Augusta to Savannah and thence to New York.

GOLD NOTES.—We see by the Post (and by the way the same idea has prevailed here) that a curious misapprehension as to the value of gold notes seem to exist in some quarter, and brokers are taking advantage of it by buying the notes of the National Bank and Trust Company for silver, an operation by which they make a nice little discount without the slightest risk. People who thus sell their gold notes are foolish. That the Trust Company is perfectly solvent we have no doubt; but it makes no difference whether the Trust Company is solvent or not, so far as the value of gold notes is concerned. If the Trust Company or any other gold bank fails and cannot pay one cent on the dollar, the gold notes are still worth their par value, and in gold—not in silver. For each dollar of the notes $1.25 in United States bonds with a premium over par in gold is deposited in the United States Treasury at Washington, as security for the reclamation of the notes; and if the bank does not redeem them at par, the Treasurer of the United States will. We do not like the national bank system, but there is no doubt as to the security it gives to the note holders. To sell a gold note for silver is the same as selling a gold piece for silver. The First National Gold Bank is redeeming its own notes as soon as they are presented, as also the notes of the country national banks for which it is agent.—Lake Democrat.

The Laws of Success.

During last month ex-Governor Washburn delivered an address before the Maine State Agricultural Society in which among other things he said:

Nothing can be more true than Mr. Disraeli's proposition that a man must understand himself. This is indeed the first law of success. No one can decide what he can do, what he should try to do, what trade, occupation or profession he should adopt, until he has discovered what he can do best. The profession or occupation once adopted, one of the first and most important laws of success is that which demands devotion mainly to one thing. In the ratio that men have to limit the score of their labors and confine themselves mainly to one thing, the aggregate of production and the common stock of knowledge increase, conquests in the realms of nature and intelligence are made and an advance in civilization is effected. I do not insist that a man shall confine himself to a single pursuit or study, but that he must have one that is controlling—that a dominant idea shall express itself in his work by a single permanent line of activity. There must be something with a man that is first, last and greatest—the central object of his thoughts, the untiring labor of his hands.

The greatest men in philosophy, literature, science, politics, have usually been men of specialties. The profoundest thinkers have not been the wisest readers. The men of few books have been of those who have contributed most to the world's knowledge. The men of one idea are those to whom freedom and civilization owe the largest debt. No revolution in opinions or customs is accomplished save by men who are intensely in earnest. A grand thought is not wrought into a nation's life except by one who is so possessed by it that he can give descent hospitality to no other.

A BATTLE ON THE PRAIRIE.—A terrible affair occurred near Dallas, Texas, on Saturday of last week. About twenty wagons met on the prairie en route for Dallas. They combined into one train and camped together. In the train was a young widow, who in her manner was sociable in the extreme. A man who had joined the train from some quarter began paying his devotions to her, which she rather encouraged. He pushed his suit with vigor, and finally made certain advances which she resented, and informed one of her admirers of the insult put upon her. He immediately took up her case and called upon the offending party, who acknowledged the fact. An apology was demanded and refused, and a fight determined on. The male members of the train divided into three parties. One favored the lady's cause, another the offending party, while the third advocated peaceful measures and sought to reconcile matters. Finding this to be impossible, the peaceful party pulled up stakes and left, determined to take no hand in the affair. They had not proceeded far before the sound of pistol shots in rapid succession, was heard, accompanied by shrill screams of women. The battle had begun. Both the remaining parties had taken up arms in support of their companions, and fought to the bitter end. The fight was furious, but after a time the pleadings of the women separated the combatants, but not until three men were mortally wounded, and several others dangerously so. About fifteen men were engaged in the affray.—Fort Scott Monitor.

Restoring Persons Apparently Drowned.

The Massachusetts Humane Society has issued the following directions for restoring persons apparently dead from drowning:

1. Lose no time. Carry out these directions on the spot.

2. Remove the froth and mucus from the mouth and nostrils.

3. Hold the body for a few seconds only with the head hanging down, so that the water may run out of the lungs and windpipe.

4. Loosen all tight articles of clothing about the neck and chest.

5. See that the tongue is pulled forward if it falls back into the throat. By taking hold of it with a handkerchief it will not slip.

6. If the breathing has ceased, or nearly so, it must be simulated by pressure of the chest with the hands, in imitation of the natural breathing; forcibly expelling the air from the lungs, and allowing it to re-enter and expand them by the elasticity of the ribs. Remember that this is the most important step of all. To do it readily, lay the person on the back with a cushion, pillow, or some firm substance under the shoulders; then press with the flat of the hands over the lower part of the breast-bone and the upper part of the abdomen, keeping up a regular repetition and relaxation of pressure twenty or thirty times a minute. A pressure of thirty pounds may be applied with safety to a grown person.

7. Rub the limbs with the hands or with dry cloths constantly, to aid the circulation and keep the body warm.

8. As soon as the person can swallow give a tablespoonful of spirits in hot water, or some warm tea or coffee.

9. Work deliberately. Do not give up too quickly. Success has rewarded the efforts of hours.

THE RICHEST WOMAN IN AMERICA.—The will of Robert H. Ives of Providence, is a great surprise and disappointment to almost everybody. It was universally expected that he would leave large sums to various public institutions Brown University especially hoping to come in for a big slice; but beyond bequests not exceeding in all $200,000, the only daughter, wife of Professor W. B. Gammell, formerly of Brown University, who is now the richest woman in America, having an income of at least a million a year, Mr. Ives' estate being estimated at about $20,000,000.

THE oldest convict in the Ohio penitentiary is dead. He had been an inmate of that institution for twenty-eight years, under a life sentence, which was literally carried out. He went there comparatively young. Nearly all his adult life, reaching through two generations, was spent in rigorous confinement. His offense was murder in the paroxym of passion, and for it he made this prodigious atonement of suffering.

Radical Rule in Mississippi.

AUBURN, Hinds County, Miss., Aug. 20.—The politicians are making a lively beginning of the canvass. Democrats and Radicals have organized. The former transact business with open doors, inviting the attendance alike of white and colored, but the latter are secret, drawing the color line closely. Many colored men have joined the Democratic clubs. They are among the respectable of their class. Since they have become free they have toiled early and late, thus by honest industry accumulating property of one kind or another. They are peaceable and law abiding. They pay their taxes, but they have grown tired of paying a tax that their ragged and idle Radical brethren dodged with success. They have grown tired of working for other reapers. They have declared for lower taxes, for honesty in officials, and against thievery and roguery generally. In a word, abandoning the Radicals, they have united with the Democrats.

Fully two-thirds of the colored men of this State would affiliate with the latter party, but they are intimidated by the Radicals and are afraid, for they are threatened in both life and property by the Radical Clubs led by white carpet-baggers. About two weeks ago a colored man belonging to the Democratic Club of Utica, Hinds county, while on his way to a club meeting was attacked by three black Radicals. Fortunately he was armed, and he used his weapon with such effect that one of his assailants was dangerously wounded, a second slightly, and the third ignominously retreated. On the 11th of August two colored men joined the Democratic Club at Auburn. Previous to their uniting with the club they asked a colored member whether he had ever been threatened. He replied in the negative, but they were very doubtful, though they finally joined. Three days later one of these men was attacked on the highway by twenty armed black Radicals. On the 18th, at a Democratic mass meeting in Raymond, a Radical negro asked a colored member of the Auburn club why "he had deserted his own color?" The Democrat inquired "if that was any of his business?" "You will find a dead dog before your door after the election," answered the Radical.

SIX HUNDRED GIRLS ENTRAPPED AND STARVED IN MARYLAND.—A number of Philadelphia girls were recently enticed to Roundtop, Kent county, Maryland, by an advertisement that fifty women were wanted to pick peaches there, where they could earn from $1 50 to $2 a day, and get good board for $2 a week. When they reached Roundtop they found about 600 girls already employed, who told them they found it impossible to earn more than twenty cents a day for fifteen hours' work; that the food supplied to them was unfit to eat, and that they had to sleep on piles of hay and straw. They would gladly return to their homes, but could not, because they were out of funds and could not spare money enough to pay the postage on letters informing their friends of their situation. Hearing this, eighteen of the Philadelphia girls who had barely money enough to pay their way to Baltimore, set out on their return. They reached Baltimore penniless, and after having fasted for twenty-four hours were sent on to Philadelphia by the city. That such an outrageous piece of villainy as that of the peach-growers of Roundtop can pass unpunished is disgraceful, and that such poverty and misery can exist in this country since the abolition of slavery is almost incredible.

MISTAKEN IDEA.—The powerful minds of the Eastern Press still labor with the California financial problem. The editors east of the Rocky Mountains seem to imagine that everybody out here has been suddenly reduced from a state of lordly affluence to a humiliating condition of abject poverty. Let them rest easy. Everything is all right out here. Men still jingle twenty-dollar pieces, and business of every kind progresses as smoothly as ever. Bank suspensions are a serious matter in the East, but people don't worry much over such matters out here. We don't depend on a machine to turn out rag money, or wait for cliques to unlock the doors of finance. When we get a little short of cash and want a few millions right bad we dig it out of the Comstock, and when our Eastern neighbors get burned out by fire or eaten up by grasshoppers we ship a few hundred thousand to the sufferers and give them a stake. When we make a turn in Ophir we go East to see our old friends, set our relations up in business, spend what we have left, and come back on a free pass to raise the wind again. As long as we raise millions of wheat, dig up millions of bullion, and take in all the money that Eastern sports bring out here to bet on horse races, how can we be "busted?"—Post.

FRIENDSHIP.—Never forsake a friend. When enemies gather around, the world is dark and cheerless; when sickness falls on the heart, then is the time to try true friendship. The heart that has been touched will redouble its efforts when the friend is sad or in trouble. Adversity tries true friendship. Those who turn from the scenes of distress prove their hypocrisy—prove that interest only moves them. If you have a friend that loves you, who has earnestly studied your happiness, be sure your sustain him in trouble. Let him feel that his kindness was appreciated, his love was not thrown away. Real fidelity may be rare, but still exists in some hearts. Who has not seen and felt its power? They only deny its worth who have neither loved a friend nor labored to make him happy. The good and kind, the affectionate and virtuous, see and feel these heavenly principles. They would sacrifice everything to promote the happiness of others. And in return they receive the reward of their love by sympathizing hearts and countless favors, when they are brought low themselves by distress and sorrow. And in the end how much good springs from true friendship.

CLAY PIPES.—Over 1,000,000 clay pipes are imported into this county annually, the greater number being the celebrated "T. D." brand. All these pipes are made in Glasgow, Scotland, and chiefly by one firm, W. White & Sons, honest old quakers, a house that has existed for nearly a century and a half.

ELECTION OCTOBER 20, 1875.

FOR SUPT. OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

DR. O. P. FITZGERALD.....Of Sonoma

FOR JUDGE OF SIXTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT,

LEWIS RAMAGE.....Of Sacramento

FOR COUNTY JUDGE,

E. R. BUSH.....Of Woodland

The State Fair is pronounced a success by the Record-Union.

BALLOT-BOX won the two mile and repeat race at Sacramento on Monday last.

THEY arrest Chinamen in Sacramento for carrying baskets suspended from poles along the sidewalk.

IT is no sign that a man is a millionaire because he supports a plug hat and a pair of box-toed boots.

LADY SUPERINTENDENTS. — Mrs. Morgan has been elected School Superintendent in Tehama county—the third of her sex elected to that position at the late election.

ON EXHIBITION. — The monster grape vine of Santa Barbara is now on exhibition in Sacramento. It is to be shipped east to the Centennial Exhibition at Philadelphia.

FOR LIFE.—Mrs. Norton, the Santa Barbara murderess who killed her husband, has been incarcerated in the State Prison to remain during the balance of her natural life.

PHELPS AND BIDWELL.—As nearly as can be ascertained at this time, Phelps received one thousand two hundred and ninety-two votes more than Bidwell for Governor.

SOON TO RESUME. — The Directors say the Bank of California will positively reopen business about the first of October. The guarantee fund has been increased to $7,500,000.

AMADOR DISPATCH.—This reliable Democratic paper has commenced upon its seventeenth volume and is one of the true blue staunch and true Democratic papers of the State. Long may the Dispatch live and may prosperity attend it.

AS a general thing nearly all white men have a sort of contempt for Chinamen, yet many of these lords of creation might follow the example of Chinamen with profit in one respect—they are never seen on the streets drunk.

HEARD FROM.—The steamer Pandora, which sailed from Portsmouth, England, June 26th, for the arctic regions, has been heard from via the Danish settlements of South Disco July 29th. All on board were in good health and spirits. The Pandora was to sail northward the following day.

THE immigrants keep pouring in from the East, and as there is plenty of room, and work for all that are steady and industrious, they should be assisted and encouraged to purchase and settle in our State, for every good citizen is a desirable acquisition to any community.

THE Sacramento papers were woefully troubled because they could get neither the Chief of Police nor Sheriff to arrest the pick pockets and proprietors of gambling dens during the State Fair, and as a consequence the city was flooded with them while decent people had no desire to join that kind of a crowd.

STATE RETURNS.—Complete returns from every county in the State, though not all official, have been received, and show the vote on Governor to stand: Irwin, 61,525; Phelps, 30,922; Bidwell, 29,630. This gives Irwin a majority over Phelps of 30,603, over Bidwell of 31,895, and a clear majority over both of 973. It is thought the official count will not materially vary these figures.

MORE BANKS — Messrs. Flood & O'Brien, the celebrated brokers of San Francisco, will open a new banking house in that city in a few days with a capital stock of $5,000,000. The wealthy French importing house of Lazard Freres is also about to organize a new bank with a larger capital than any on this coast. San Francisco is fast getting to be a very important gold and silver centre for the commerce of the whole world.

A FALSE ISSUE.—Some of the Radical papers, of this State, particularly, are trying to make it appear that the currency question will be the great issue in the approaching Presidential campaign. Evidently they are not posted. Vice-President Wilson expresses the opinion that the currency question will not figure in the Presidential contest next year. He says that both parties are divided upon it and will handle it very gingerly. This must needs be so. In a country so large as ours, different sections necessarily have different interests—some manufacturing, some agricultural, some mining, etc. And as Mr. Wilson says, it is not likely that either party will care to make the currency question very prominent. We like the hard money.

Over Confidence.

The Democratic party has achieved a glorious triumph in this State, by a majority so large that there is danger that a feeling of over confidence may arise on the part of those who will have charge of the affairs of State. It should be remembered by those in office that the people have effected this great change from Radicalism to Democracy, because they had tired of the former and desired to place the latter on trial again. It is not long since this State was politically in the hands of the Democracy, with Governor Haight at the helm. And that term of office is well remembered by the tax-payers. They know how taxation was reduced from what it had been previously under Republican management, and they also know that taxation has been increased under Booth's administration. Hence the change; together with the general fact of Radical corruption and oppression, and malfeasance, and nepotism, and profligate extravagance in governmental affairs—all of which have disgusted the people with the Republicans and Independents. And now that the independent sovereigns have wrought this change, those who have been placed in office must not abuse the power temporarily placed in their hands. Let the party and its chosen candidates—who are now the servants of the people at large, not of a party—stand on their good behaviour. Let them show to the world that they are what they seem to be—that they will not betray the trust reposed in them by their constituents, and that they really mean to work for the best interests of those who have favored them by placing them in position. Then all will be well. Then the Democracy will be entitled to, and will be entrusted with, a long lease of power. But if, on the other hand, these chosen representatives of the Democracy should prove recreant to the sacred trust reposed in them, or betray the confidence of the people, or fail to keep the pledges they have made, then they will be hurled from the places they have been chosen to occupy at the first opportunity by the all-powerful ballots of their injured and disappointed constituents. Power is tempting, and has ruined many a man. Great caution should be exercised, and strict integrity must be observed. The will of the people must be done by their public servants; and if they fail in this, they will, as they should, be retired to private life, and others chosen in their stead. We like Democratic principles, and the men who represent them if they are true men and true Democrats. But the fact alone of a man being a Democrat will not shield him if he fails to do his whole duty. That day, if it ever did exist, has gone by; and we with the mass of the people shall demand strict accountability on the part of those placed in public office. Let the newly elected officials of Yolo remember what is required of them.

VERY WELL PUT.—The Mountain Democrat contains some very sensible advice upon the California election, past and to come. The last number deicourses in this wise:

"Now let all who have worked foolishness, and all who have done craziness, and all who have imagined vain things, straightway repent, and come in out of the wet, and prepare themselves like little men to vote the straight Democratic ticket at the Judicial Election.

"Know ye not that cleanliness is next unto godliness? Wherefore vote ye none other than the clean Democratic ticket at the Judicial Election.

"Woe be unto thee, Democratic scratcher, for verily art thou an abomination.

"Whosoever scratcheth, him also shall other scratchers scratch.

"Wherewith thou scratchest, therewith shalt thou surely be scratched.

"More, yea, an hundred-fold more, shall be the itching or him who scratcheth the Democratic ticket at the Judicial Election.

"Peace, and rest, and quietness, and sweet sleep, and pleasant dreams, and much gain shall be the lot of him who voteth the straight Democratic ticket at the Judicial Election. Selah!"

POLITICAL GRAVITATION.—The Albany Argus says California follows the irresistible law of gravitation, and glides naturally from an Independent to a Democratic State, beginning by protesting against Radical incompetency for rescue from the consequences of that misrule. It can no more remain in a condition of mere negative opposition than mankind generally can be content with trusting to those who do nothing, in order to save themselves from wrong-doers.

The way to get rid of bad or negatively good rulers is to combine against them and overthrow them, and substitute men of positive power and force for good in their stead. And this combination can only be made around the Democratic organization. It is the consciousness of this truth in politics which compels most men who are tired of Radical incompetency, to avow themselves Democrats, and to act with that party. And this tendency is quickened by every movement toward honest government by the Democratic party, such as is being conducted in New York under the lead of Governor Tilden. Another year, what remains of the "Independent" party in California will become attached to the Democracy; for its very existence is a remonstrance against Radicalism. And it is impossible to so reorganize the Radical party as to receive the confidence of the public. Indeed, the opposition to the Democracy in this State, is not only demoralized, but so divided as to be practically annihilated. California ranges itself with the States which will vote for a Democratic President in 1876. It has required careful management and hard work to bring this about. All honor to its leaders; and all honor, too, to their supporters.

THE new engine belonging to the Vacaville R. R. Co., which had all its woodwork burned a short time since has been remodeled at the Central Pacific shops in Sacramento and comes forth again as good as new.

The New York Democracy.

During the present week the Democracy of the Empire State held their Convention at Syracuse. Their nominations were: John Bigelow, by acclamation, for Secretary of State; Lucius Robinson, for Controller; Chas. S. Fairchild, for Attorney-General; Chas. N. Ross, for State Treasurer; John D. Van Buren, for State Engineer. The Democratic party of New York renew their pledge of fidelity to the principles adopted in the last National Democratic Convention, and since reapproved and indorsed by more than one-half of the total population of the Union. They refer to the Baltimore National Democratic Platform of 1872, and quote from it: "The public credit must be sacredly maintained, and we denounce repudiation in every form and guise. Speedy return to specie payment is demanded alike by the highest considerations of commercial morality and honest government." They also reaffirm the principles set forth in their platform adopted last year at Syracuse, indorsed by 50,000 Democratic majority at the election following, in a poll of nearly 800,000 votes, and vindicated before all the people of this republic by the illustrious administration of Samuel I. Tilden, as follows:

First—Gold and silver the only legal tender: no currency convertible with coin.

Second—Steady steps toward specie payment. No steps back, and the honest payment of the public debt in coin.

Third—The sacred preservation of public faith.

Fourth—Revenue reform; federal taxation for revenue only; no Government partnership with protective monopolies.

Fifth—Home rule to limit and localize most jealously the few powers entrusted to public servants, municipal, State, Federal; no centralization.

Sixth—Equal and exact justice to all men; no partial legislation; no partial taxation.

Seventh—Free press; no gag laws.

Eighth—Free men; a uniform excise law; no sumptuary laws.

Ninth—Official accountability, enforced by better civil and criminal remedies; no use of public funds by public officers.

Tenth—Corporations chartered by the State always supervisable by the State and in the interest of the people.

Eleventh—The party in power responsible for all legislation when in power.

Twelfth—The Presidency a public trust, not a private perquisite; no third term.

Thirteenth—Economy in public expense, that labor may be lightly burdened.

The Democrats of New York, in convention assembled, pledge themselves, their nominees and their representatives in the Senate and Assembly, to follow where an honest and fearless Chief Magistrate has dared to tread in reforming the administration of the great canals, so long despoiled in their construction; to carry on with unwavering purpose and fidelity the wise measures to increase the efficiency of all departments of the public works and service, and to persist in reducing our State tax, in which the burdens have already been lightened by the retrenchments and reforms of a single year, to the amount of nearly $3,000,000; and upon this paramount, immediate and practical issue of administrative reform, we cordially invite the cooperation of every true Democrat, every liberal Republican, and all our fellow-citizens of whatever party named, who are willing in the coming State election to unite with us in supporting reform candidates, on a reform platform.

CIRCUMSTANCES sometimes are such as to give men positions they are unworthy of, while on the other hand it often happens that we find men forced, from no fault of theirs perhaps, to accept places not suited to their ability or acquirements. But as water finds its level, so in time will men after they become thoroughly known.

SOME men are never to poor to support two or three dogs and an old pipe although the children may have to go bare footed.

This is to certify that I have sold large numbers of the MATHUSHEK PIANOS for over four years, and not one has ever failed. They keep in tune and wear better than all others, and exceed the expectations of purchasers, which has led to increase the demand for them. For information, call, and do not be led by interested parties to purchase certain Pianos you would soon after desire to change for Mathushek. They took the ONLY MEDAL at the State Fair, with four competitors. I have no idea of giving up the agency, as reported by interested parties. New and Wonderful Invention.

The newly invented SCRIBNER PATENT "QUALIFYING TUBES." (Secured by letters patent in the United States, England and Canada.) An invention having a MOST IMPORTANT BEARING on the future reputation of Reed Instruments. By means of which the quantity or VOLUME of tone is VERY LARGELY INCREASED, and the QUALITY of tone rendered equal to that of the best Pipe Organs of the same capacity—thus furnishing all the desirable characteristics of the large Church Pipe Organ. In a case the size of an ordinary Cabinet or Parlor Organ, and at the moderate price of Reed Organs. By means of this invention; an Organ containing two sets of reeds becomes equal in volume and power, and VASTLY SUPERIOR IN QUALITY AND BRILLIANCY OF TONE to an ordinary Reed Organ of six or eight sets of reeds. One of the crowning features of this invention is the peculiar facility with which it adapts the tone of the instrument to ACCOMPANY THE VOICE IN SINGING, the effect upon both singer and listener being charming beyond description. This ingenious invention consists in the construction and application of tubes of wood or metal, placed so as to operate in connection with the reeds, each tube having an opening on the upper side at the rear end, through which the air, subsequently passing through the reed, enters, and through which the sound produced by the vibration of the reed escapes. The tubes inclosing the reeds of the treble are provided with adjustable valves or slides, over the mouth opening, by means of which the tubes may be tuned in unison with reeds, to produce a flute-like tone, such as found heretofore only in pipe Organs.

Can be seen and heard on the corner of Sixth and I streets.

Town and County Matters

WOULDN'T WE.—If we were the responsible editor of the DEMOCRAT wouldn't we support a plug hat with a gloss that would double discount the shine on the Mail man's old plug? Wouldn't we pitch into everybody and everything and make people read the paper whether they wanted to or not? Wouldn't we go for the whiskey mills and have lots of old red noses bleached out? Wouldn't we have all the boys and girls attend Sunday School and their pa's go to Church instead of playing "whiskey poker" on Sunday? Wouldn't we have the up's and down's in the sidewalk on Main Street made smooth, so a stranger could pass along in the evening without being in danger of breaking his neck? Wouldn't we see that our laws are not violated and disregarded? Wouldn't we go for loafers, dead beats and gamblers rough shod? Wouldn't we have people attend to their own business and not be continually poking their proboscis into their neighbors affairs? Wouldn't we insist on every body's being virtious and consequently happy? Wouldn't we—you bet your life. But then we are only a "sub" whose duties will end next week, so we shall be obliged to let the world wag and everybody go to distruction their own way.

THE editor of the Democrat started last Wednesday for San Rafael to attend the yearly Camp Meeting of the Seventh-Day Adventists and we, that is, the type setters, the "devil" and—no matter who else are left to fill up the local this week and run the concern next week, and as the editor is not responsible and we are irresponsible the readers of the Democrat will not know who to find fault with should any thing be said that they do not approve of, and certainly will not know who to blame if the paper is unusually poor. If we do not succeed in running the thing into the ground next week the responsible editor will return and continue to furnish the paper at the old price, four dollars a year payable in advance. Subscriptions accompanied by the coin will not be refused before his return.

THE following conversation between a couple of young misses was overheard the other day, which shows how people differ in their opinions: No. 1, I do think that Mr. Blank has such beautiful hair and eyes, besides he's so tall and handsome that he has a real distinguished appearance. No. 2, Nonsense; I never look at that tall gawky with his number five hat and eleven boots without thinking of a hair pin.

OUR city is being visited by a good many strangers now-a-days looking for locations for homes. There is one thing sure they can find no pleasanter place, or better schools, or more productive land, than in and around Woodland and all good citizens will be received with open arms and be given a cordial welcome.

THAT young Chinaman that runs around the streets with all his cloths on his front side while his back side is naked had better have his Ma dispose of the big string of beads he has around his neck to purchase cloth with which to put a big patch on the rear of his "trowserloons".

THE proprietor of the Craft House must be making money, judging from the kind of turnout he sails through town with every day, and yet he is going to give up the house and Mr. Jacobs is going to keep it after November 1st.

IF any one should happen to feel hurt at anything in the Democrat this week or next, and desire to thrash some body, it will be necessary for them to go for the "devil" as he is the fighting man of the concern in the absence of the editor.

THIRTEEN persons devote their time to teaching the young idea to shoot in the proper direction in Woodland, and they have all they want to do too, as there are five hundred unruly mischievous youngsters to be attended to.

F. M. HALL, the stove and tin dealer, has purchased the Hollingsworth building near the Post office, we understand, and moved his stock in there.

LIFE, as well as other things, becomes monotonous without a little pepper and salt now and then to make it Smart. We heard a man say the other day he thought the Mail needed a small dose.

THEY say it is not much of a man that will allow a woman to support him. How is it about a woman that will allow a man to support her. It's a poor rule that dont work both ways.

PEOPLE will have to hurry up with their work now as there is less daylight to do it in than there has been. The nights are growing longer and the days shorter.

DONT neglect to pay your taxes before next Friday, if you do, you will have to suffer the consequences for the penelty will be added then sure.

A SLIGHT DISAGREEMENT.—The Yolo Mail last week "went after" his late "pard," Mr. Hopkins, of the Dixon Tribune, in an article of a third of a column, in which said "pard" is very flippantly called an "inveterate gambler in the publishing business," etc. This, we judge, is brought out by the fact that Mr. Hopkins, like a sensible man, took the Democratic side of the fight in the late campaign. Mr. Hopkins' "journalistic gambling" would have been all right, in the opinion of the Mail, had he advocated in the Tribune the now defunct Independent ticket, which he had too much sense to do. And now comes the Tribune and says of his late confrere of the Mail: "Wagstaff, the self-convicted falsifier, and scribbler of the old granny paper up in Woodland, after succeeding in electing Irwin by his abuse of him and defeating Freeman by his championing his cause, and true to his instinct and custom of slandering his betters, devotes half a column in throwing mud at us," etc. What a pity that these "old pards" can't get along without quarrelling now that they are so widely separated; but they long since failed to "dwell together in unity."

ONLY TWO BITS for a box of that nice writing paper, with envelopes to match, at the Postoffice.

NEW MUSIC.—From the popular and leading publishing house of Mr. Gray, 105 Kearney street, San Francisco, we have been favored with the following selection of choice new music: Where is Heaven? song, by E. E. Rexford, music by Felix Marti; The Miner, song, written by Mr. John Clark, music by Marti; Absence and Return, words by J. E. Carpenter, music by Franz Abt; Colinette, song, words by Elson, music by Giulio Alary; There is a Name I Never Breathe, song, words by Carpenter, music by Balfe; Ah Me, How Fair, song, words by D. W. C. Nesfield, music by Felix Marti; Wooing in the Lane, song, words by Rexford, music by Marti. Send orders as above, and they will be promptly attended to.

FIVE QUIRES COMMERCIAL NOTE PAPER for four bits, at the Postoffice.

A WAYFARER.—The other day a stranger who was weary, dusty, travel-worn and foot-sore called upon us, representing himself as entirely without the means of sustenance, and having, on his way down from the mines, walked from Knights Landing that day. He said he had formerly been assistant editor of a newspaper in India, but had drifted off to California and became very much reduced. A man of education and culture, he had tried to earn enough money by working in the mines to take him to San Francisco, but had failed from not knowing how to perform the kind of labor. So we did what little we could for the poor fellow, and after getting well rested he went on his way rejoicing.

THREE BUNCHES GOOD ENVELOPES for twenty-five cents, at the Postoffice.

GONE EAST.—We learn that J. H. Harlan and wife have gone on a visit to the East. Mr. H. will probably be back before the next regular meeting of the Supervisors, so as to take his seat on the Board in place of J. K. Smith; and Mr. Sims will then be inaugurated in place of Geo. W. Swingle, who has been a member of the Board continuously and served the people faithfully for nine years.

THE MATHUSHEK PIANO.—We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Mr. J. F. Cooper, of Sacramento, who is agent on this coast for the celebrated Mathushek Pianoforte, one of the best musical instraments extent. This piano, well known in all large cities is just being introduced here by Mr. Cooper. Read his advertisement, which speaks very loudly for the Mathushek.

TIP-TOP CIGARS at the Postoffice. Try them.

MILLINERY.—Mrs. Ogburn having returned from her Summer trip to the mountains is again prepared to wait on the ladies in the way of the most modern and stylish millinery. A large stock of millinery goods has been purchased for fall and winter hats etc. Ladies, please call and see.

NORTHER.—A light north wind had prevailed for several days up to Monday morning last when it freshened into an old-fashioned gale, filling the air with dust as bad as San Francisco in midsummer.

RETURNED.—Mrs. Dr. Mehring returned from the East a few days since, where she has spent the last year for the benefit of her heath, which we are glad to know is much improved.

GOOD CIGARS $1 50 a box, at the Postoffice.

LUMBER ARRIVAL.—The Schooner Glenn Arva from Mendocino arrived at Vallejo on the 14th with cargo of 90,000 feet redwood lumber for R. H. Newton & Co.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.—Regular services will be resumed in this Church next Sunday morning the 26th inst. All are invited.

FAMILY SEWING.—See the card of Mrs. Howard, in this line. Residence near the Gas Works.

QUITE a large number of our people have visited the State Fair during the past week.

S. G. HARPER ESQ., and family are to move to San Francisco soon we understand.

Ohio Democratic Platform.

So much has been said about the platform of the Ohio Democracy that we deem it of sufficient interest to publish it entire, that our readers may examine and decide for themselves upon its merits. Ohio seems to be the conceded battle ground of the two national parties at the East, and hence great interest is manifested by both parties all over the country in regard to the contest in that State. Below is the platform upon which the Democracy go into the fight, and it is claimed that they will win by a large majority:

The Democratic party of Ohio, in State Convention assembled, proclaims the following propositions of political faith and action:

First—A sacred adherence to the principles of the Government declared and put in practical operation by the fathers of the Republic.

Second—Opposition to aggressions by either department of the government upon the functions of the others, and to the exercise by the Federal authority of any of the powers reserved by the Constitution to the States respectively or to the people.

Third—The protection of the Government to all citizens, without regard to race, color or previous condition of servitude.

Fourth—The President's services should be limited to one term at a salary of twenty-five thousand dollars a year.

Fifth—Retrenchment and reform in every department of government, Federal, State and local.

Sixth—No grants of land or money by the Government, or use of its credit to railroads, steamships or other companies.

Seventh—The preservation of the remnant of public lands for the benefit of citizens of the United States and foreign emigrants who have declared their intention to become such, who will occupy and cultivate the same.

Eighth—That the contraction of the currency heretofore made by the Republican party, and the further contraction proposed by it with a view to the forced resumption of specie payments, has already brought disaster to the business of the country, and threatens it with general bankruptcy and ruin. We demand that this policy be abandoned, and that the volume of the currency be made and kept equal to the wants of trade, leaving the restoration of legal tenders to a par with gold to be brought about by promoting the industries of the people, and not by destroying them.

Ninth—That the policy already initiated by the Republican party of abolishing legal tenders and giving the National banks the power to furnish all the currency will increase the power of an already dangerous monopoly, and the enormous burdens now oppressing the people, without any compensating advantage, and that we oppose this policy and demand that all the National bank circulation be promptly and permanently retired and legal tenders be issued in their place.

Tenth—That the public interest demands that the Government should cease to discredit its own currency and should make its legal tenders receivable for public dues, except where the respect for the obligation of a contract requires payment in coin, and that we favor the payment of at least one-half of the customs in legal tenders.

Eleventh—The extinction of the present national banks and the establishment in their stead of a system of free banks of discount and deposit only under such regulations as the States may respectively prescribe, and no paper currency except such as may be issued directly by and upon the faith of the general government.

Twelfth—A tariff for the sole purpose of revenue.

Thirteenth—We favor the complete separation of Church and State, religious, independent and absolute freedom of opinion, equal and exact justice to all religious societies, and purely secular education at the expense of the taxpayer without division among, or controlled by any sect, directly or indirectly, of any portion of the public school fund. In view of the admirable provisions of our State Constitution upon these subjects, which are due to the energy and wisdom of the Democratic party, we denounce the Republican platform as an insult to the intelligence of the people of Ohio and a base appeal to sectarian prejudices.

Fourteenth—That we are opposed to the passage of what are called sumptuary laws or any interference with the social habits or customs not in themselves criminal, and we reprobate any espionage by one class of citizens upon another under any pretense whatever. With this declaration of principles and policy we arraign the leaders of the Republican party for their extravagant expenditures and profligate waste of the people's money; for their oppressive, unjust and defective system of finance and taxation; for their continued tyranny and cruelty to the Southern States of the Union; for their squandering of public lands; for their continuance of incompetent men in office, at home and abroad, and for their general management of the government; and we cordially invite all men, without regard to past party associations, to cooperate with us in expelling them from power, and in securing such an administration of public affairs as characterized the purer and better days of the Republic.

THE CALIFORNIA WINE CROP.—The wine crop of this State increases each year in importance. We have gathered from different sources statistics which afford sufficient data to base a calculation as to the probable product of this year's vintage. The production of the State this year will be at least 8,000,000 gallons, divided about as follows: Sonoma, 1,000,000; Los Angeles, 800,000; Solano, nearly 500,000; Napa, 700,000; El Dorado, 600,000; Yolo, 500,000; Auburn, 400,000; Yuba, Sacramento and Marysville, 1,200,000; Colusa, 300,000; Santa Clara, 500,000; Santa Barbara, Ventura, San Bernardino, San Luis Obispo, Monterey, Tehama, Lake and other counties not enumerated, say 1,500,000, making the total above given. Sonoma is the largest wine producing county in the State, having last year for the first time exceeded the product of Los Angeles. In the next few years a large number of vines will come into bearing, increasing the present production almost one-half. The vintage here promises well. It will commence in a few days, and is two weeks sooner than last year.—Sonoma Democrat.

ARE you going to the camp meeting? That's the question.

THE street corners look lonesome. The loafers have all gone hunting or to the State Fair.

Giubord's Bones.

They are having a terrible time over the bones of one Giubord who died six years ago at Montreal, Canada. Giubord was a Catholic during his life time but belonged to a literary society which had books in its library that the Church of Rome did not approve of and because the members of the society refused to throw said books out of their library they were refused admission to the Church. Giubord in the mean time died, and although he owned a lot in the Catholic cemetery, the Bishop would not allow him to be buried there, while his friends insisted that he should. So he has been kept in a vault and a quarrel has been going on for six years over the affair. The courts were appealed to, and it has been carried from court to court, and at last there came a decree signed by Her Majesty the Queen, in favor of Giubord and his friends. They therefore undertook to carry his remains to the cemetery but were met by a mob who stoned the party and swore the remains of Giubord should never rest in consecrated ground. What the end will be time only will show. Whether the court's and Queen's orders are to be obeyed, or the Roman Catholic Church is to defy all is a question that must now be settled.

THE weather on Monday last was the most disagreeable of the season. The wind blew a gale from the north filling the air with dust and dirt.

THERE is to be a change in Postmasters October 1st. We understand that Mr. L. Walker is to be acting P. M.

THE retiring P. M., Mr. Dexter and family propose to go down on the coast and seek a location after he gives up the office.

AIN'T the campaign over? We see the stand for stump orators is allowed to remain in the street yet.

THE reading room is a pleasant place to pass an evening. Try it young man.

REAL ESTATE was away up last Monday. The wind did it.

THE Craft Hotel "buss" needs a little paint.

PAY UP.—J. J. Ammons tells us that on all Road Poll Tax remaining unpaid after the first of October there will be one dollar extra added.

THEY have had a terrible storm at Galveston, Texas, and the last reports say that the east end of the Island is washed away, and the inhabitants barely escaped with their lives and have lost everything. Thirteen laborers on the breakwater are missing. The vessels in port worked incessantly saving lives and property. The steamer Rio Bravo rendered valuable assistance, and saved many lives. The damage to buildings and warehouses and their contents cannot be estimated, but is very heavy.

THE body of the man who committed suicide in San Francisco on Monday, by throwing himself under a locomotive was identified Tuesday morning, as that of Rudolph Michaelson. The deceased formally owned a large nursery in this city, but sold out some time ago, since which time he has been unemployed.

MARRIED.

On Randolph Flat, at the residence of the brides parents, Sep. 12th, 1875, by the Rev. Wm. McPheeters, John N. Flint of Smartsville, to Miss Mary R. Grant of Randolph Flat.

With the above came a nice lot of wedding cake with the compliments of the happy couple, for which we return our thanks and congratulations. May they enjoy long life and happiness withal.

Important Results Pleasantly Achieved.

Although the days of irrational medication are happily passing away, and intelligent physicians have ceased to measure the supposed efficacy of a remedy by the violence of its effects, there still linger among the older practitioners a few of those predilections in favor of "heroic" treatment, which it would be lucky for their patients if they had abandoned. One of these is a fondness for administering drastic purgatives, such as blue pill, calomel, Jalap and castor oil. A contrast of the effects of these drenching drugs with the mild and beneficent operation of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is the very best argument that can be adduced against the wisdom of such destructive treatment. The old fashioned cathartics convulse the stomach, and relax the bowels so abruptly and copiously as to weaken them. Hostetter's Bitters, on the contrary, never gripe the intestines, but produce a laxative effect resembling the action of nature. At the same time they remove the cause of constipation, by arousing the dormant liver to secrete the bile necessary to the regular performance of the excretive function, and enable the stomach to thoroughly digest the food. Indigestion and billiousness having been thus overcome, a regular habit of body is the necessary consequence, which the occasional subsequent use of the Bitters renders permanent. Every disagreeable symptom which, in the absence of perfect digestion and evacuation, harrasses the system, vanishes under the influence of the great national stomachic and alterative. Health and vigor are twin blessings that follow its use.

DURANG'S RHEUMATIC REMEDY.—Presidential Mansion, Washington, D. C., April 23, 1875. Messrs. Helphenstine & Bentley—Gents: For the past seven years my wife has been a great sufferer from rheumatism, which at times assumed a very malignant form, and for days and nights deprived her of rest. Several months ago our attention was called to DURANG'S RHEUMATIC REMEDY, and after giving it a trial, using three bottles in all, she was freed from pain and a permanent cure effected. I am glad to be able to make the above statement in reference to your wonderful remedy, three bottles of which will, in my opinion, cure any case of rheumatism on the face of the earth. Yours truly, WM. H. CROOK, Executive Clerk to President Grant. H. C. KIRK & CO., Wholesale Agents, Sacramento Cal. jy1-3m

MOWERS!

We introduce to the Farmers of the Pacific Coast, for the season of 1875, the celebrated

"Meadow King" Mower.

This Machine we have selected from among some twenty-five machines inspected personally by our Manager last Fall throughout the Eastern States, and we find it to possess the great features most needed in California and Nevada, viz., Simplicity, Strength and Durability.

While it possesses all the good features of the "Buckeye," it has some others that make it far superior; and we feel confident in introducing it that we will meet the want of all Farmers for the BEST MACHINE for the least money. It is not a new and untried machine, but one which has stood high throughout the East for the last seven years. Send for special circular.

HEADERS!

We shall have for 1875 the

THRESHERS and ENGINES.

GOLD MEDAL SEPARATORS,
GAAR, SCOTT & CO'S PORTABLE ENGINES.

We introduced these Separators and Engines in California, during the season of 1873, and with unprecedented success. In every case they gave the best of satisfaction, and were shown to be far superior to the machines before used—doing better work, cleaning the grain better, and saving more than the even so called "Standard" machines of the Coast. The Engines were shown to possess great power, and to be much easier to handle, and better in every way. For 1875 we offer them, with all the necessary improvements to fully adapt them to the Coast, as Machines superior to any other. Send for Special Circular.

In the Kulinda.

In this all too tropic weather,
If we could, we'd go together
Sailing far o'er distant oceans and among the dreamy isles;
And in queer, outlandish places,
Visit various savage races,
In our little yacht Kulinda, floating on for miles and miles.

There are islands in the ocean
Where the wild and restless motion
Of the heart that beats and surges with its passions and its pain,
May be stilled to quiet dreaming,
Till the pain is but the seeming
Of a world long left behind us that we no'er shall see again.

Though in the South Pacific,
Sweeps the hurricane terrific,
Rushing out from lurid mountains of heaped up clouds in air,
There are little shady harbors,
There are cool and quiet arbors,
'Neath the trees upon the islands that are brightly resting there.

How often we've been sailing
With our feet upon the railing
Of the boat that could but take us to the shore at Rockaway,
And in smoke wreaths curling
We have dreamed that we were furling
Our sail in some fair haven in some far off tropic bay.

How the merry browned skinned maidens
In those very far off Aidens
(Never dreaming 'twas improper) sat beside us 'neath the trees;
And in cool and wavy tresses
(Most delightful of all dresses)
Told us tales of love till evening by those happy wondrous seas.

Then away we went aboating,
And to other islands floating,
Other skies and other idling seeking with our careless song.
Now in bright lagoons were sailing,
Where the heavy keel went trailing
From beyond the wreath of coral all its listless wake along.

So in this tropic weather,
Were we rich, we'd go together,
Sailing far o'er distant oceans and among the dreamy isles,
But in queer, outlandish places,
They may seek in vain for traces
Of the little yacht Kulinda where it sailed those happy miles.
